

WILLIAM F. SPIVEY JR.
SECRETARY, SEMINOLE COUNTY PORT AUTHORITY
BOARD MEMBER, FL SAFE

Bill Spivey has a variety of experience in capital programs, project finance and entitlements. In June 2022, he concluded a 9.5-year leadership role as the Executive Director of both the Florida Development Finance Corporation, a state-wide conduit issuer that provides access to capital for qualify projects and borrowers through the issuance of traditional tax-exempt/taxable bonds and the Florida Resiliency and Energy District, an entity that levies/collects special assessments for Property Assessed Clean Energy projects. He currently serves on the Board and as Secretary for the Seminole County Port Authority and assisted them with developing an updated Investment Policy and Investment Approach.

His background, in both the private and public sectors also includes:

- Economic development financing (SSBCI 1.0 loan support programs / SBIR-STTR / Minority Business Development) and venture capital through Enterprise Florida, Inc.
- Client Services Manager with D. A. Davidson for the investment of public funds through the Florida Surplus Asset Fund Trust (FLSAFE), a local government investment pool.
- Entrepreneur as the founder of JEC Advisors, Inc. (financial advisory services for charter schools) and Keystone-ELF (a startup emergency liquidity facility for the money market fund industry).
- Investment Banker (Series 7 and 63 licensed) with Kirkpatrick, Pettis, Smith, Polian Inc. and D. A. Davidson & Co., working on a wide range of local government, district, charter school, university, and conduit financings,
- Urban and Regional Planning (AICP-Certified) for Bridge & Slaughter, LLC in MS, City of Sanford, FL and the City of Lake Mary, FL.
- Adjunct professor with the Emanuel University, Griffiths School of Management at in Oradea, Romania teaching Entrepreneurship.
- Prior Board member: FLSAFE (most recently serving as Vice Chairman), Council of Development Financing Authorities (CFDA), venVelo (Seed Capital)
- Appointee: Transition Advisory Committee on the Economy for Governor Ron DeSantis

Bill is a graduate from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.